

About Blue Mountains History Tours

Operating since 1996 in this exceptional part of the world; catering for tourists, seniors' groups, school groups and local people seeking to know more about their area's history.

Presenting history in an interesting and entertaining way, while staying true to thorough research, is what we pride ourselves on at 'Blue Mountains History Tours'.

Furthermore, we endeavour to always take into consideration the unique character of each and every person who tours with us, wanting to make their visit to the Blue Mountains a special and memorable event.

Blue Mountains History Tours

Conducting historical day tours in the Blue Mountains, Australia.

We offer services including:

- On Board Coach Commentaries
 - Walking Tours
 - Tag-a-Long Car Tours
- School Tours, and School Drama Workshops

We can assist you with food and accommodation venues.

Call us:

Paul Innes: 0402 483 599

Helen Johnston: 0437 372 565

Visit our website:

www.bluemtnshistorytours.com.au

Email:

info@bluemtnshistorytours.com.au

Link to our website

Blue Mountains

History Tours

Coach Tours Brochure

Coach Tours

Two Day Tour of the Blue Mountains

Consider a two day Tour, combining a couple of tours, in the wonderful Blue Mountains. So much to see and do! We can also recommend a number of suitable overnight accommodation venues.

$380 - group in Large Coach

$280 - group in Minibus

When War Came to the Mountains

Investigate the impact World War One and Two had on the Blue Mountains. Hear stories of farewell banquets, a phantom 1914 German invasion, recruitment marches, obscure monuments, visiting school children, POW's, a Carrington Gallipoli veteran, those visiting Americans etc

$260 - group in Large Coach

$190 - group in Minibus

The 3 Explorers Journey

Re-trace this remarkable journey as we travel across the Blue Mountains. See a significant section of original 1813 route in Wentworth Falls, and hear accounts from Gregory Blaxland's journal. Consider continuing on to Mount York.

$260 - group in Large Coach

$190 - group in Minibus

The Royal Tour

Hear stories and myths of Royalty who have visited The Blue Mountains. Walk where Royalty walked when we tour the Carrington Hotel and visit Echo Point.

$260 - group in Large Coach

$190 - group in Minibus

The 1930s Tour

Discover some of the events and personalities which shaped the physical and social fabric of the Blue Mountains in the 1930's. Collapsing cliffs, tree plantings, sporting crazes, holiday stories, a famous cricket match and even stirring political events contribute to the commentary.

$260 - group in Large Coach

$190 - group in Minibus

Mystery and Eccentricity

Discover some of the hidden places, strange happenings, and most unique people who have shaped this intriguing landscape, known as the Blue Mountains.

$260 - group in Large Coach

$190 - group in Minibus

We also offer Historical Walking Tours

featuring:

- Welcome to Katoomba
- Elegance at Katoomba's Carrington Hotel
- A Coalmine within a Rainforest
- Leura. A Plumbing Family's Tale
- Cox's 1814/15 Convict Road, Mt York
- Blackheath Meander
- A Walk around Mount Victoria Village

Other Tours available on our website:

www.bluemtnshistorytours.com.au

(Travel, rides, accommodation and food costs are not included in these prices. GST is not charged).

As a courtesy to our guests, 'Blue Mountains History Tours' has a policy that all tours are researched, professionally presented, and never rushed.

No minimum number is required on any tour.

